

Guidelines for Contacting Our Elected Representatives

These guidelines have been prepared to help you exercise your freedom and responsibility as a Christian citizen in this state. The first section provides some general considerations when communicating with elected officials, and can be easily adapted for use in writing Letters to the Editor of newspapers or other organizations.

The second section provides some selected prayer suggestions for our elected officials and for our nation.

The third section details the contact information for elected officials that represent us at both the national and state levels. In using this information, use whatever method of communication is the most comfortable for you. It can be either by written letter, e-mail, phone call, or Fax. The important thing is that your opinion (concern or encouragement) be provided to your representative, whatever way it is actually delivered to them.

If you find any inaccuracies in the following information, please call it to the attention of any member of the GBC Christian Citizenship Ministry or contact the GBC office.

General Guidelines when Communicating with Elected Officials

- The amount of influence we have can be dependent upon the means of communicating. Typically, the following are in order of impact:
 - Personal visit (highest impact)
 - Personal phone call
 - Personal letter (mail or Fax)
 - Personal e-mail
 - Form letter or petition (mail or Fax)
 - Form e-mail or electronic petition

- Write to the appropriate person
- Address the official properly (title, position, etc.)(1 Peter 2:17)
- Always be courteous (2 Tim 2:25)
- Be appropriate - you don't have to show your Christian bias (may automatically be rejected), state concerns and what you want done
- Reference specific legislation by title or number if possible
- Be brief, make your point clear, be precise on what you are writing about, and don't ramble (Matt 5:37)
- Typically, only tackle a single issue or topic per letter
- Keep to one page or less, multiple pages letters are easily ignored
- Be original (use your own words), don't use a form letter approach
- Be legible (if it can't be read, it won't be)
- Be clear on what action (if any) you are requesting to be taken
- Be specific if you want a reply or not and by what time you want it
- Have others read your letter for content, tone, grammar & spelling
- Be sure to "cc" other appropriate persons or groups
- Keep a file copy of your letter, as well as any responses received
- Be patient in waiting for a response, send a follow-up letter after a grace period (reference the previous letter)
- Send another letter if you're not satisfied with the response received
- Writer letters of encouragement also, particularly when pleased with something (Rom 13:7)
- Reminder: you can address spiritual issues separately (1 Tim 2:1-2)
